c) Disclosure of Confidential Information. All Confidential Information will remain the sole property of the Disclosing Party and its confidentiality will be maintained and protected by the Receiving Party with the same degree of care as the Receiving Party uses for its own confidential and proprietary information, but in no event, less than a reasonable degree of care. The Receiving Party will not use the Confidential Information except as necessary to fulfill its obligations or to enhance the service experience under this Agreement, nor will it disclose such Confidential Information to any third party during the term of this Agreement and for three years after its termination, without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party. The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party if it is compelled by law to do so, provided the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prior notice of such compelled disclosure (to the extent legally permitted) and reasonable assistance, at the Disclosing Party’s cost, if the Disclosing Party wishes to contest the disclosure. If a substantive breach of the security of any of AI's systems occurs, AI will notify Customer verbally, within one business day, and in writing, within five (5) business days, of such breach. AI will take immediate action to prevent any further breach of its security, and such action will take place as soon as possible after detection of such breach. b) Exclusions. AI will have no obligation under this section for any Claim to the extent that it arises out of or is based upon: 1) use of Services in combination with other products or services if such infringement or misappropriation would not have arisen but for such combination; 2) use of Services by Customer for purposes not intended or outside the scope of the license granted to Customer; 3) Customer’s failure to use Services in accordance with instructions provided by AI, if the infringement or misappropriation would not have occurred but for such failure; or 4) any modification of Services not made or authorized in writing by AI where such infringement or misappropriation would not have occurred absent such modification.

This section states AI’s sole and exclusive liability, and Customer’s sole and exclusive remedy, for the actual or alleged infringement or misappropriation of any third-party intellectual property right by any Services.

d) Indemnification by Customer. Customer shall defend AI against any claim made or brought against AI by a third party alleging that Customer Data, or Customer’s use of the Services is in violation of this Agreement, infringes or misappropriates the intellectual property rights of a third party or violates applicable law, and shall indemnify AI for any damages finally awarded against, and for reasonable attorney’s fees incurred by, AI in connection with any such claim; provided, that AI: 1) promptly gives Customer written notice of the claim; 2) gives Customer sole control of the defense and settlement of the claim (provided that Customer may not settle any claim unless the settlement unconditionally release AI of all liability); and 3) provides to Customer all reasonable assistance, at Customer’s expense.

THE FOREGOING SHALL NOT LIMIT CUSTOMER'S PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTIONS 4 AND 5.

c) Independent Allocations of Risk.
